This is the Southern Accent, the yearbook of the students of Birmingham-Southern College. It is paid for through your student activities fee which the Student Government Association divides among student publications and other activities on campus. The yearbook is produced by students like yourself who are selected for their positions by the Publications Board and paid through scholarships established by the Student Government Association. These students have worked long and hard to insure that this book is an accurate recap of the year in pictures and print. In assessing the values of a yearbook we decided that a yearbook should help one recall fond and even not-so-fond memories of their college years. This book is the Southern Accent staff's efforts to reassemble a year in your life as seen through our photographer's lenses and our editor's imagination.

HENRY IRVIN PENFIELD

Dean H. Irvin Penfield has had an outstanding career at Birmingham-Southern College. His work here has spanned over two decades and shows no signs of ending soon. The Dean maintains himself as an educator even in the midst of his overwhelming responsibilities which could but do not keep him out of the classroom or from doing research work. Dean Penfield received three degrees in Political Science from the University of Alabama including his doctorate. Dean Penfield has been an educator at Birmingham-Southern since 1967 and has been Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College since 1985.

NEAL R. BERTE

Dr. Neal Berte is one of the foremost educators in the nation and an exemplary member of the Birmingham community. The honors and awards bestowed upon Dr. Berte more than indicate his success as an educator and his service to the community. He earned three degrees from the University of Cincinnati including an education degree. In 1979 Dr. Berte was given an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree from Birmingham-Southern College for his service to the school. Dr. Berte has been President of the College since 1976 and lives with his wife Anne, and their four children on the campus.

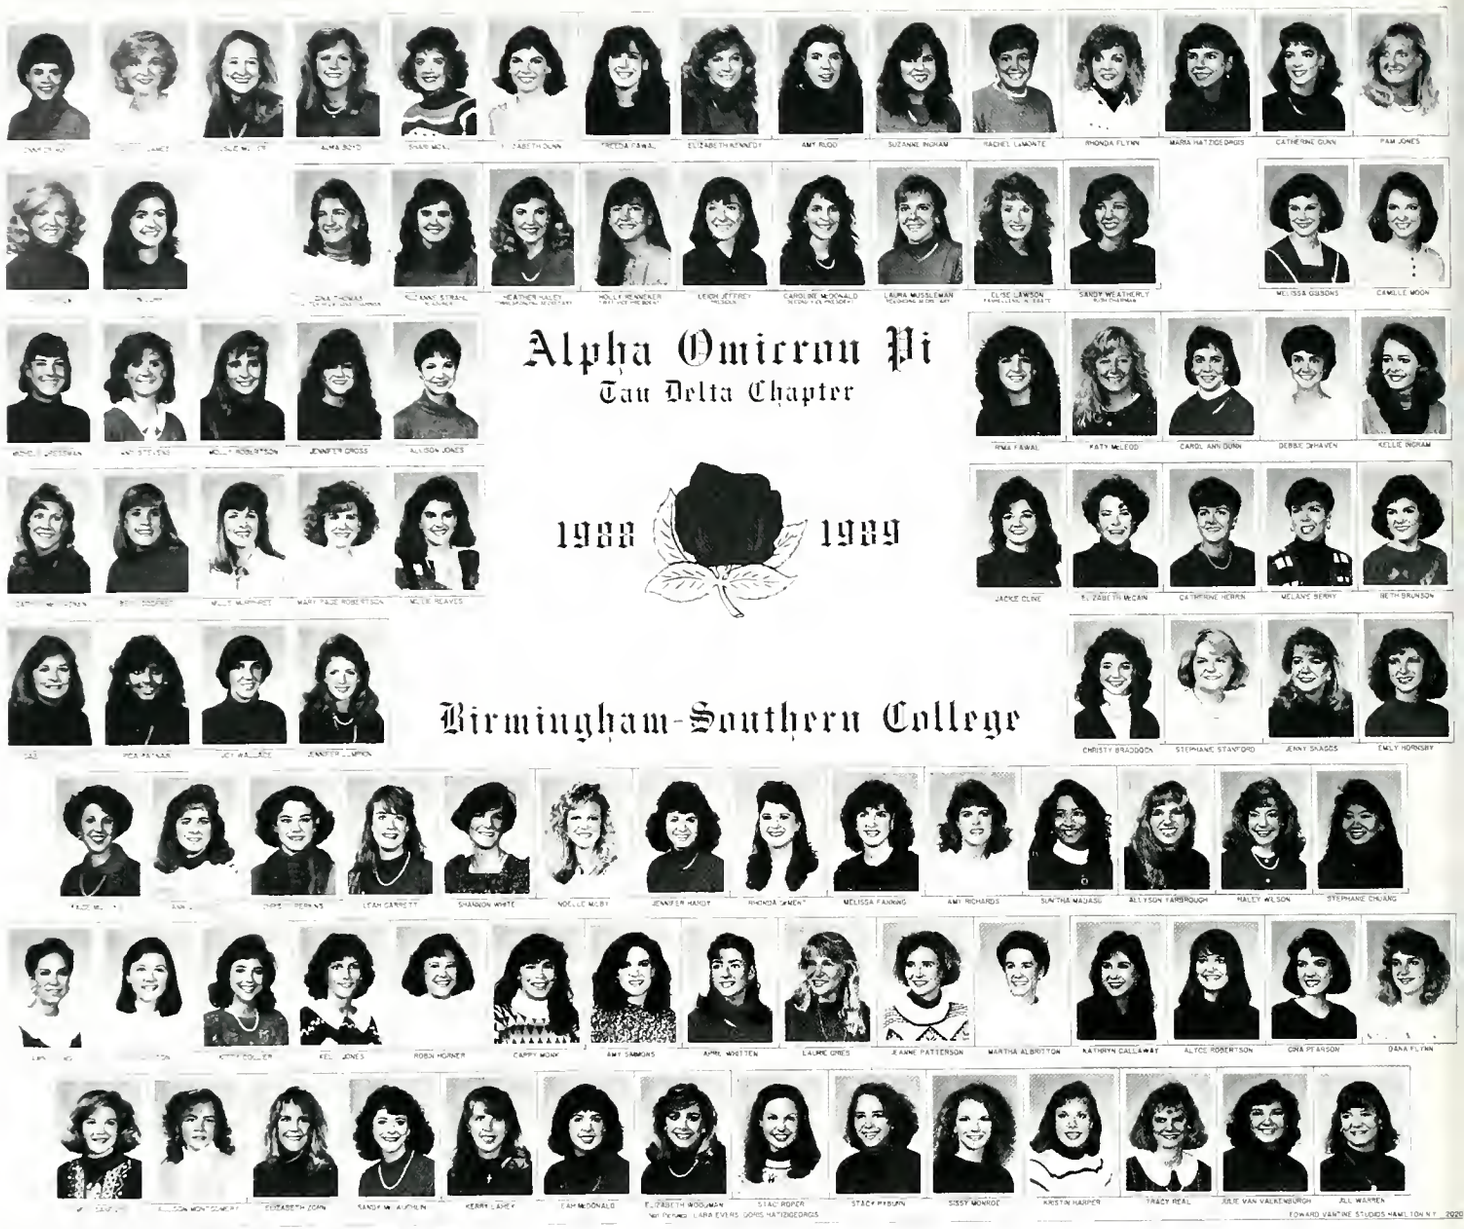
ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The Alpha Chi Omega fraternity was founded in 1885 at DePaul University. The Alpha Omega chapter here at Birmingham-Southern was founded in 1926. Alpha Chis' colors are scarlet red and olive green. The jewel is the pearl which is displayed in the lyre pin. Alpha Chis have a strong sense of sisterhood which is shown by the loving support each girl shows for the others whether it is in academics or extracurricular activities. This sense of support reaches out into the community as well. The three major philanthropies supported by Alpha Chi are Easter Seals, the McDowell Colony, and Cystic Fibrosis. Because Alpha Chis know the importance of being well rou ed, they are involved in every organization campus. These feelings of support, caring love have a deep tradition in Alpha Chi Om and will continue to be a bond between members.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was founded at Howard University by nine young women. The Nu Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha was founded at Birmingham-Southern College in 1979. Alpha Kappa Alpha's colors are salmon pink and apple green. Their jewel is the pearl and their flower is the tea rose.



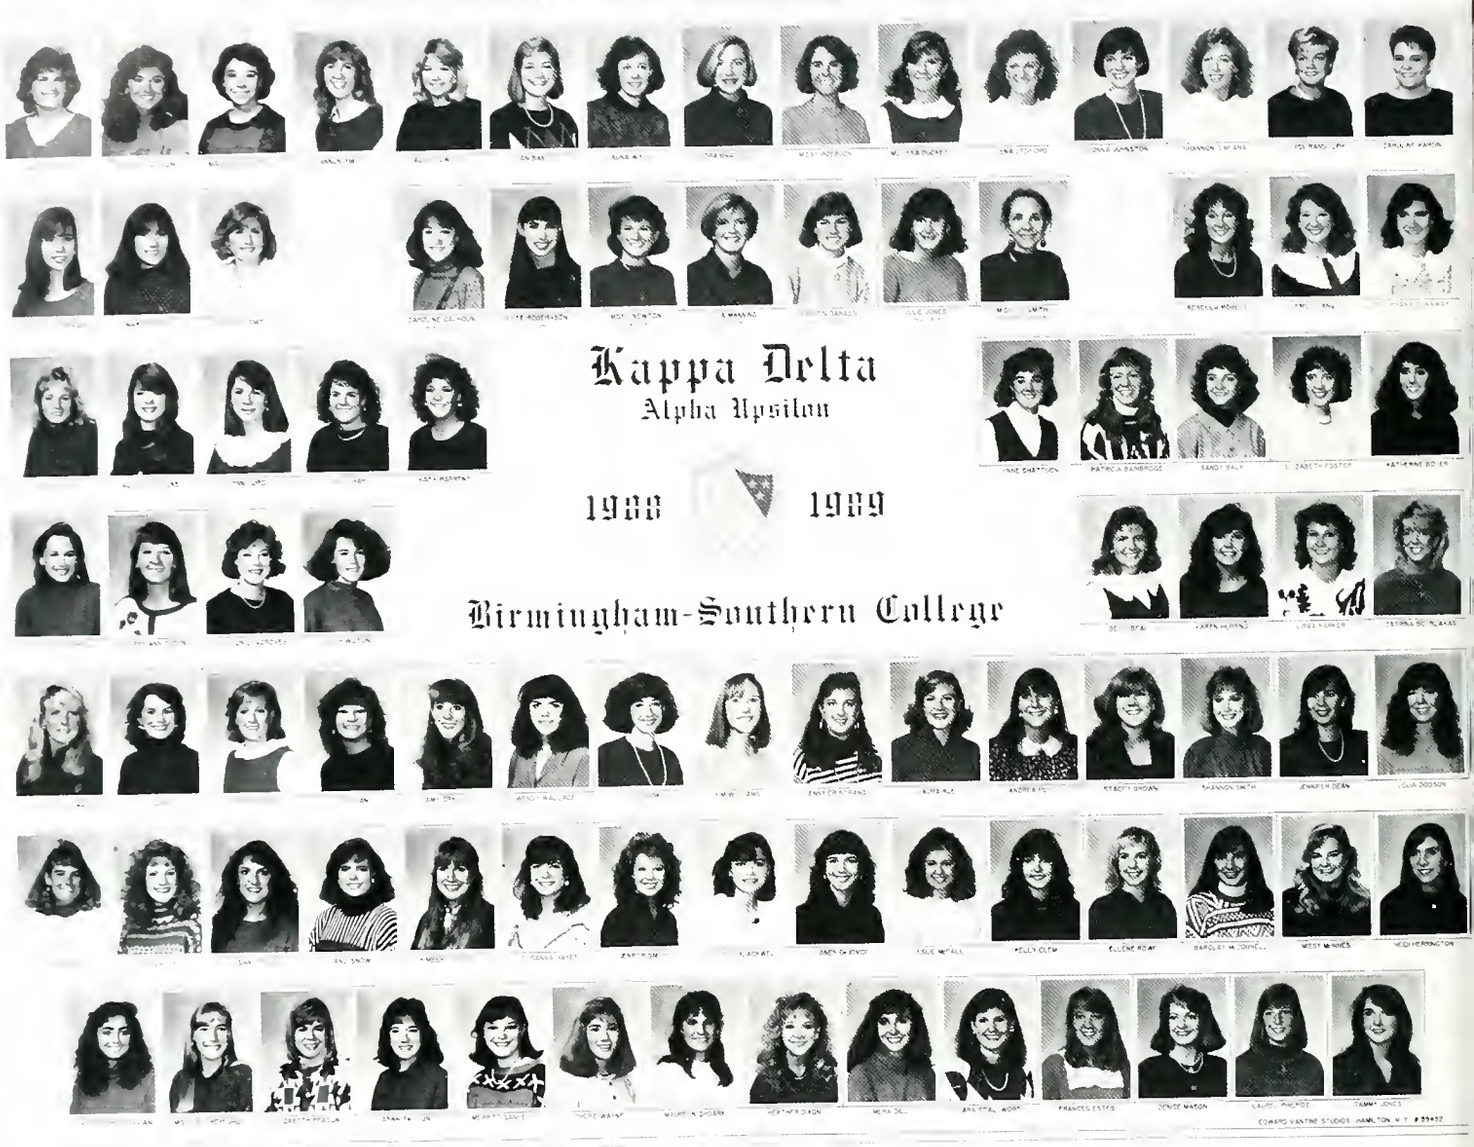
ALPHA OMICRON PI

Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority was founded at Barnard College in 1897. The founders were Jessie Wallace Hughan, Helen St. Clair (Mullan), Stella Gearge Stern (Perry), and Elizabeth (Bess) Heywood Wyman. Tau delta at Birmingham-Southern became the first Alabama Chapter in 1925. Tau delta's philanthrophy is arthritis research. Their color is cardinal (red and white) and their jewel is the ruby.

CHI OMEGA

The Chi Omega Fraternity was founded at the University of Arkansas on April 5, 1895. The official colors are cardinal and straw and their mascot is the owl. Throughout its history this fraternity for women has focused on the personal growth of its members—academically, socially, and emotionally. Chi Omega marked its beginning on the campus of Birmingham-Southern this Fall when it chartered a colony of 46 young women. The colony was officially installed on Feb. 18, 1989 as the Omicron Lambda Chapter.

The members discovered the joys and bonds of sisterhood while establishing themselves as strong participants in the well-established Greek system. In addition to participating in the activities such as Greek Sing, Greek Week, Intramurals, and Homecoming, Chi Omega set many of its Chapter traditions. Events such as Howlloween Hayday, Masquerade Madness, and srenades were just a few of the traditions started. In addition, the Chapter chose Hannah Home as its philanthropy. Other organizations were chosen as philanthropies as well, such as Camp Smile-a-Mile and Magic Moments.



KAPPA DELTA

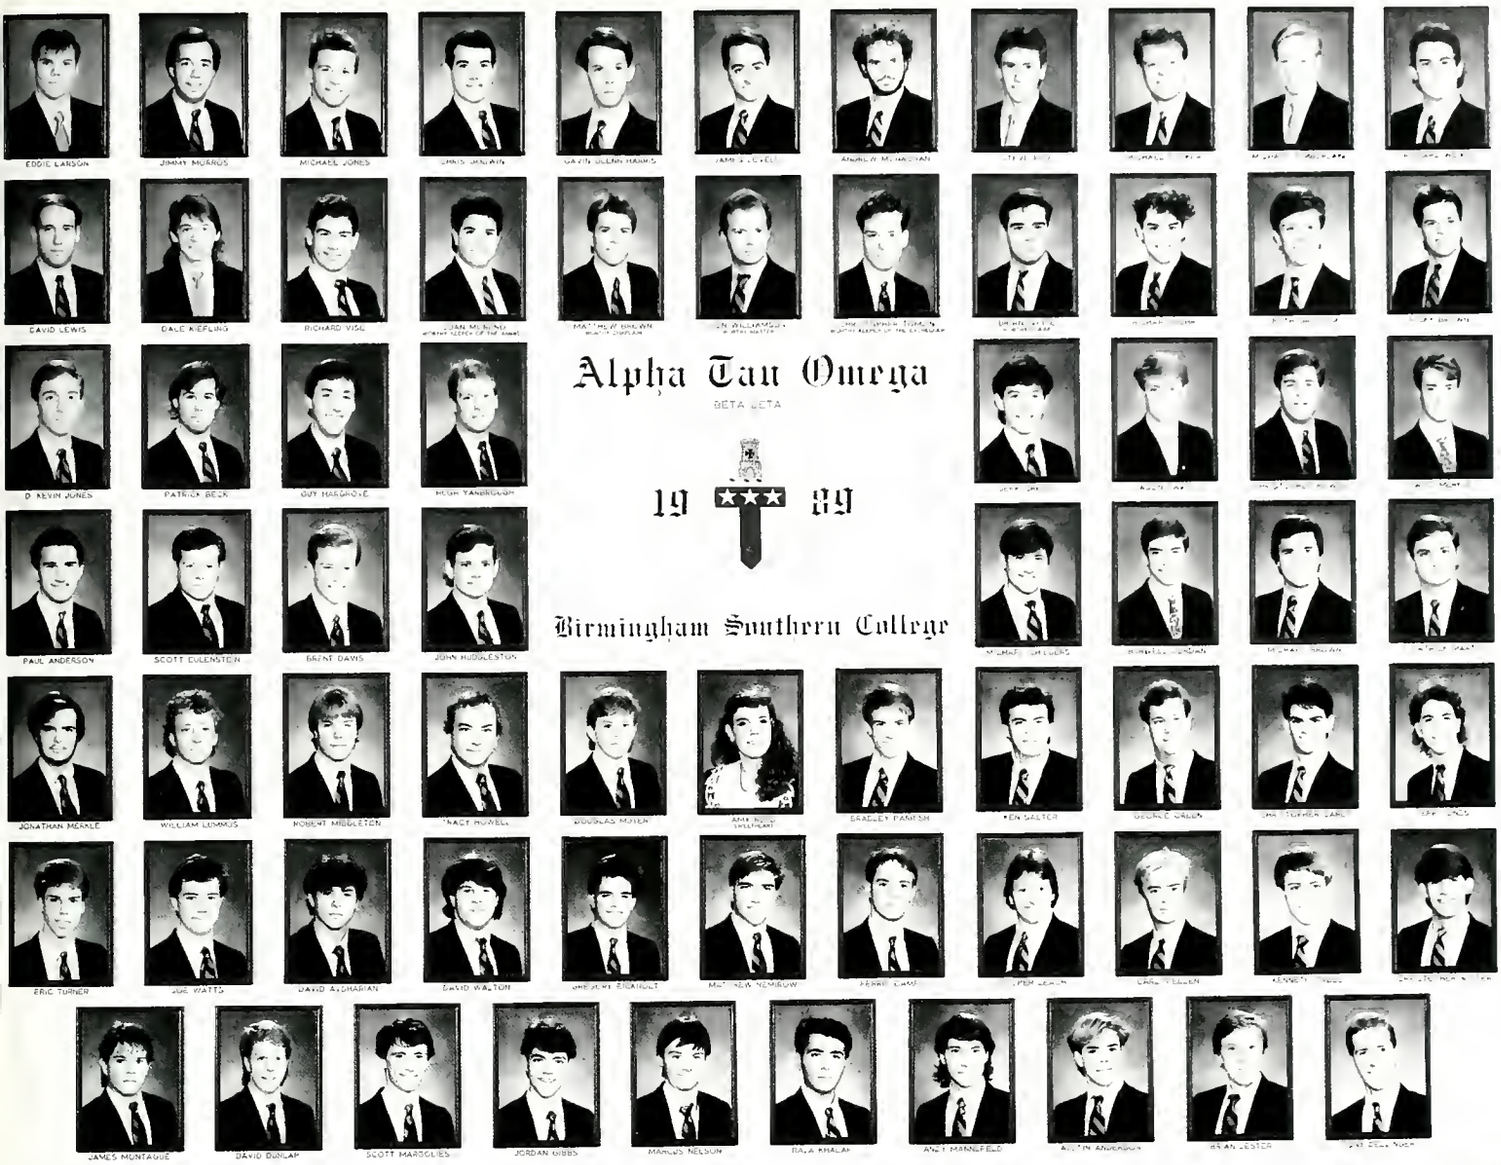
The Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta was founded on February 22, 1930. The colors of Kappa Delta are green and white, and the mascot is the Katy-did. The Kappa Delta sorority at Birmingham-Southern College has a long and wonderful history. It is a group of girls whose strong friendships are based on Christian values. The Kapa Delta sisterhood is like a family with each member caring for the others. Kappa Deltas strive to achieve their highest potential in all endeavors, whether they be academic or extracurricular activities. Many Kappa Deltas are members of organizations and are involved in projects and events on campus. The projects and events Kappa Delta is involved with include selling Ghost-Grams for Halloween, working as volunteers at t Ronald McDonald House, and the Shamro Project. Another big event for the Kappa D tas on campus is the annual Swing-a-th which also raises money for the prevention child abuse. Alpha Upsilon's past and pres are very special, and both lay a strong foun tion for the future members of Kappa Del

PI BETA PHI

Beta Phi was the first national fraternity ablished for women. The first chapter was gun at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illi- s on April 28, 1867. Along with being the st women's fraternity founded, Pi Beta Phi s also the first to develop and continue to pport a National Philanthropy. PI Phi sup- ts entirely the Arrowmont School of Art l Crafts in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. The Alabama Alpha Chapter at Birmingham-Southern was founded as the first in the state of Alabama on October 7, 1927. Pi Phi has as its local philanthropy the Methodist Children's Home, and fund-raising projects include the annual Carnation Sale and a self-defense class for students. Chapter members are involved in many campus honoraries and service organizations. Alabama Alpha members enjoy skiing and shopping in Gatlinburg, Tennessee during their sisterhood retreat with the pledges each year. Lake parties, Christmas parties, and sleepovers at members' houses provide many fun memories of college and sorority life. The sisters of Pi Beta Phi share a special bond which will last beyond their college years.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia in 1898. Alpha Nu chapter, the first sorority founded at B-SC in 1925 is also the largest NCP group on the campus. Tourquoise blue and steele grey are the colors of Zeta Tau Alpha and Zeta's jewel is the pearl. White Violet formal named for Zeta's flower is a Spring tradition. Annually, Zeta Tau Alpha holds the ARC-AID fund raising band party to support the philanthropy, Association for Retarded Citizens. Alpha Nu's with their strong bond of sisterhood strive to achieve their highest potential in a demics and extracurricular activities. The ters are involved in many organizations, h oraries and clubs. The Zeta's live by tl founding precept of love, "the greatest of things."

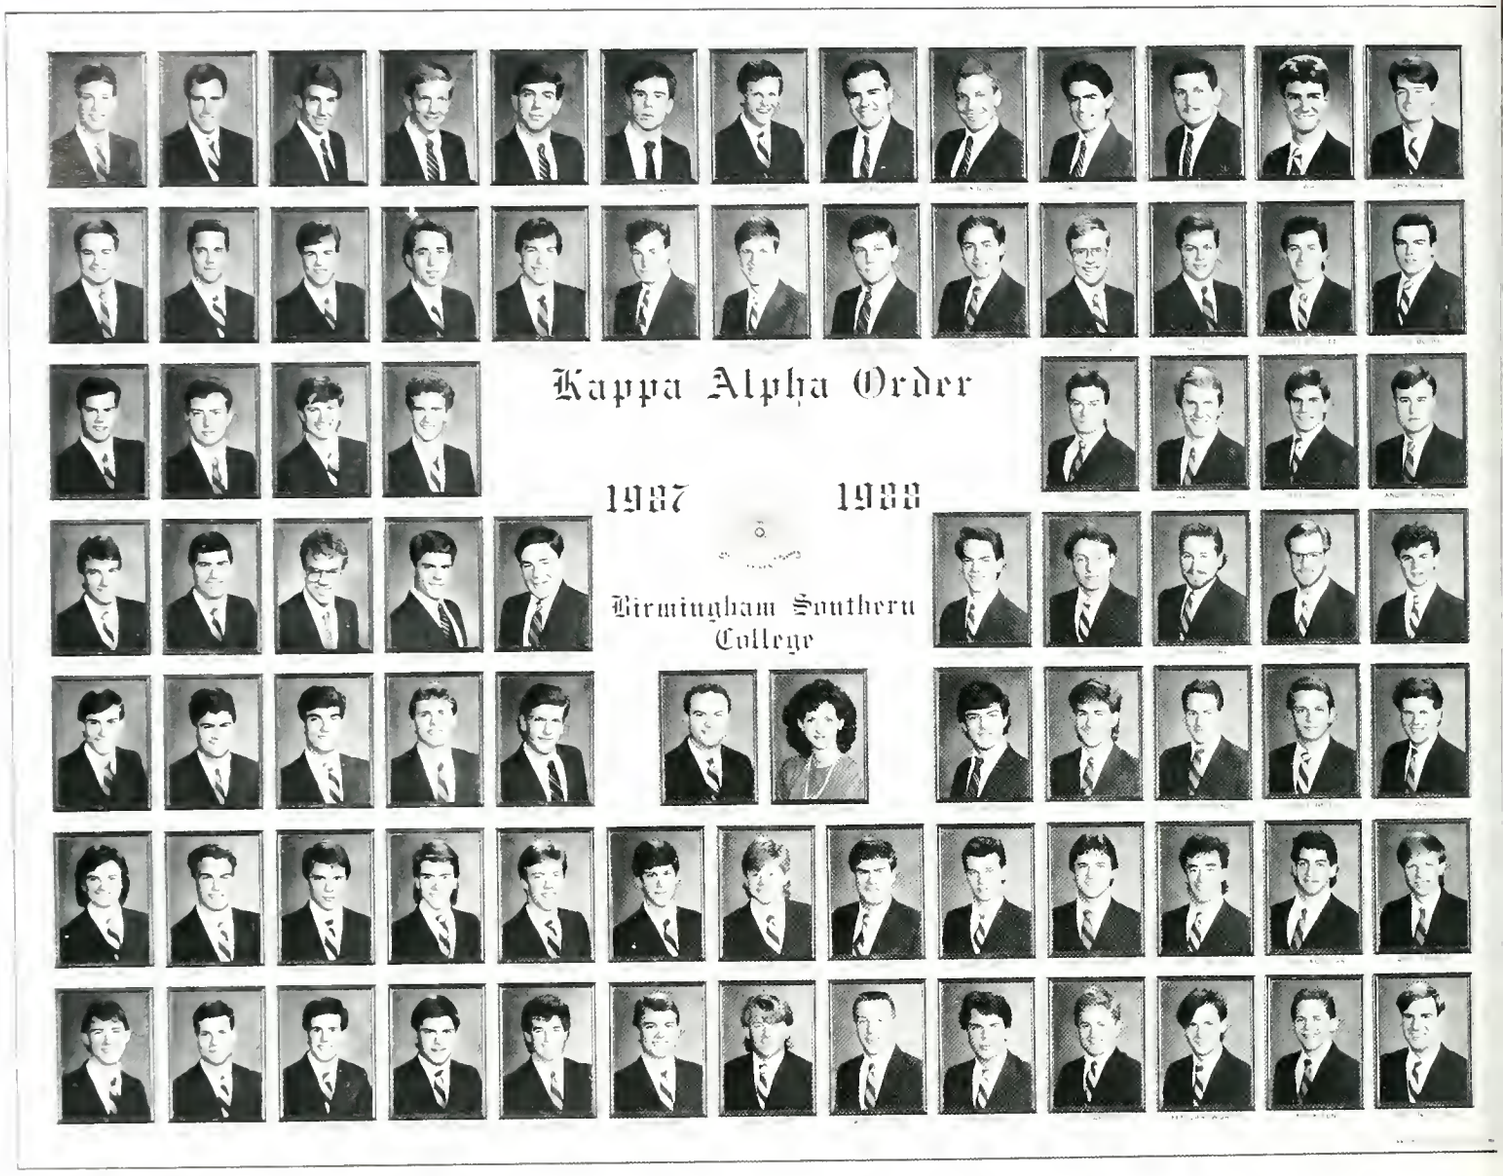


ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity was unded in 1865 by Otis Allen Glazebrook, 'skine Mayo Ross, and Alfred Marshall Virginia Military Institute. Today ATO nks as one of the largest fraternities in .S. and certainly in the Southeast, where TO chapters exist on almost every major mpus. The ATO national fraternity prodes a unique opportunity for undergradtes to grow in abrotherhood founded on Christian principles. The Alpha Tau mega Fraternity also offers special proams for leadership, scholarship, and felwships through the Leadershape Program and the Alpha Tau Omega Foundation.

The Beta Beta Chapter was founded here at BSC in 1885. The chapter has experienced many ups and downs in its history. Most recently the Chapter has experienced a tremendous turn around and has become the one to watch on campus. We are proud of our diversity as a fraternity, and we are equally proud of the strong bond of brotherhood that we maintain among each of our members. The most outrageous parties on campus are Alpha Tau Omega's, from Luau, when our house is transformed into a tropical paradise, to Viking Party, ATO's throw-down in the Nordic tradition that was founded at our chapter over twenty years ago.

Assistance and loyalty, though, is really the core of being an Alpha Tau Omega man. Based upon ideals that are honorable and timeless, our fraternity is dedicated to instilling in each brother, the pride and the desire for excellence that is worthy of the Alpha Tau Omega badge. So if you want to join a fraternity where every member makes a positive difference, it's ATOnly!.



KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

In 1865, in the midst of a war-torn community which had been victimized by enemy raids during the war between the states, four students at Washington College (now Washington and Lee) in Lexington founded Kappa Alpha Order. The founders of KA sought to preserve the ideals of the countly gentlemen of their time. They perpetuated this goal in establishing an order of Christian Knights. Stress is laid upon the fact that Kappa Alpha is an Order, religious in feeling and rooted in tradition of high personal achievement. There is no Kappa Alpha fraternity. An order is a society of persons united by possession of a mutual distinction; the recognition of something previously acquired. It is a group of men aspiring to the qualities of the true gentlemen. Only those who possess those qualities and those who carc to develop them, can fully enjoy Kappa Alpha and grow in character in its membership. The traits of the modern KA gentleman are reflective of knights who derived the chivalric code of the Middle Ages. The chivalric code compelled a knight to be brave, honorable and true to his promis work; to be loyal to his feudal lord, to defe his church; to protect the weak, aid the p and seek justice, and to revere womanho The spirit of chivalry continues to exist in concept of the gentleman, with his attribu of honor, faith, justice, regard for truth, c sideration of others, reverance for wom hood, and courtesy and good judgement in eryday activities. As is often said, chivalr alive today. And it can be easily traced to gentlemen of the Kappa Alpha Order.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

ma Alpha Epsilon was founded on March 1856 at the University of Alabama and has nained one of the nation's respected fraterles. The Alabama Iota Chapter was estabied at Birmingham-Southern on November 1878. Founded on the basis of intellectual l Christian ideals, the fraternity has always pired its members to strive for wisdom, wth, and maturity. Through its motto, The e Gentleman, the fraternity enlarges the ues of good will, justice, and honor. In its scholastic endeavors and athletic achievements, SAE has maintained the level of excellence which has gained it many high honors and awards. The Chapter's high level of commitment to community service has greatly benefited such organizations as Muscular Dystrophy, Multiple Sclerosis and Cystic Fibrosis. SAE's campus involvement is consistently seen in honoraries such as Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, and ODK; and, also in organizations such as the SGA, PSSO, Student Judiciary, and the Triangle Club. Although the chapter has been named one of the top six in the nation for past six years, all of these achievements pale in comparison to the brotherhood felt among members of the chapter. Through their friendships and dedication to the chapter, the brothers of Alabama Iota continue to maintain and improve the high standards synonymous with SAE and to contribute fine, young leaders to society.

SIGMA NU

Sigma Nu was founded on January 1, 1869 at Virginia Military Institute by James Frank Hopkins, Greenfield Quarles, and James McIlvaine Riley, who sought to transcend the troubled society following the Civil War. These three men founded the Legion of Honor, a brotherhood whose goal is to live the life of honor and whose principles are love, truth, and honor. From that time Sigma Nu has grown to be one of the top three national fraternities, with over 200 active chapters in the United States and Canada. Lambda Theta chapter here at Birmingham-Southern was chartered on May 2, 1987 and is one of Sigma Nu's fastest growing chapters. Since our establishment we have made a vast impact on the campus. In our three years we have won the Phi Eta Sigma Award for the highest pledge class scholarship all three years. This year the chapter seeks to place scholarship in balance with a good social life, as can be seen by our many mixers with sororities both on and off campus, our famous Chuck's place parties, Shipwre and annual White Violet Formal. Laml Theta chapter also won many other cam awards such as Hilltopper skit competit and Greek Sing. Members are in several h oraries and campus groups. The brother Lambda Theta place brotherhood as our priority and is evident in our closeness. La da Theta chapter looks back upon our suc with great pride and we see a bright future of growth.

THETA CHI

ıeta Chi Fraternity was founded at Norwich niversity in Vermont on April 10, 1856. Beta Chapter was installed here at Southern on ay 23, 1942. Theta Chi encourages mem-rs to extend a helping hand to those who ed it. They are involved in school service th members on Student Judiciary, P.S.S.O., iangle Club, S.G.A., and other service orga-zations. The brothers of Theta Chi support e Sheriff's Boys Ranch with an annual fund iser and, more importantly, with time spent th the kids on Saturday afternoons. They also work for Special Olympics. The brothers of Theta Chi also strive to gain academic excellence, consistently maintaining a high average and placing members in distinguished honoraries, including Phi Beta Kappa. Excellence on the field as well as in the classroom is a high priority with Theta Chi. They won the All-Sports Trophy last year and have won Greek Week for the past several years. All these achievements pale in comparison to the most important factor : brotherhood. Theta Chi's live, play, and work togethr in an atmosphere of great friendship. They teach their members truth, temperance, and tolerance while inspiring friendships that will last a lifetime. Theta Chi will continue its rich tradition in the future, never ceasing in its efforts to grow and improve. Every man who has worn the military red and white of Theta Chi became a better man because of it, and Theta Chi will continue to nurture excellence in its members because Theta Chi is for life.

HOMECOMING 1989

Monopolizing the Good Times

"Panther rags" and Jello-eating were bits of Homecoming '89 that will last in memory. It's funny how the good times were incorporated into our somewhat eccentric Southern patterns. No parades or pageantry initiated the three-day celebration, which began instead with the spectacle of several students slurping their way to the bottoms of bowls filled with bright green gelatin shortly afterward, the contestants were seen to have turned a similar shade. But we were in top form that evening at the basketball game, and some groups even managed to shout, scream and cheer their way into the Birmingham News. Homecoming excitement was increasing with each moment, and so were the frenzied efforts of our campus student groups, who seemed to work non-stop on their banners, yard decorations, Mrs. Rowdy cross-dressers and other regalia, producing numerous constructs of wood, paint and tissue paper. Although they didn't last long, those symbols of college spirit will doubtless remain indellibly in our minds.

Around here there is a rule as inflexible as gravity that states when there is work, there is an eminent party, and our original engagement with the bands"The Choir Boys" and "Captain Nemo" was supplemented with "The Pagan Babies" and "Sharks Don't Eat Potatoes". With appropriate fervor we celebrated our Homecoming victory, and with predictable and well-earned lassitude, the campus snoozed afterwards, satisfied.

HON OF TH

SOUTHERN COMFORT

It began appropriately enough, with the primal rhythms and stange inflections of Birmingham Root Posse on Thursday, March 30. This reggae combo seduced the large crowd, which included many non-student guests, into the Rasta spirit. 'Southern students were jammin' to the tunes of Marley, Tosh and other reggae greats. The evening was closed by Foxy Fatts, a jazz group that lulled the crowd with their peaceful sounds.

The diverse and eclectic sounds of The Cast filled Simpson Friday night as the party that has become such a big part of Birmingham-Southern tradition continued. These Southerners were more than "comforted", they caroused on coolers and slip-stepped on "party funk" until the wee hours of the morning. Despite an already busy weekend the students were still ready for more. So on Saturday, they were given N3D, a pretty-boy rock band from Nashville who set the crowd on fire only to raise their expectations for the featured event of the weekend. The crowd was wowed by the fast-pace sounds of Dash Rip Rock complete with their nuclear drummer. When the night was open many a satisfied student could be seen heading home in the 'Southern moonlight.

GREEK WEEKEND

"Greeks are arrogant and care little about anything but their glamorous image and partying." This has probably been mumbled by more than a few people at BSC. The Greeks had their chance to show that these people with such narrow visions of the Greek System are wrong during the 1989 Greek Weekend. Only here could you see Muffy, her hair clotted with whip cream, mascara bleeding down her face; or Bif, with his face reddened from strain being gragged across the ground by a tug-o-war rope. These are but a few of the sights to be seen as the campus saluted the Greeks. The Fraternities and Sororities displayed their skills (or lack of skills) in various events including serious and not-so-serious activities. These included water relays, running events, tug-o-war, goofy relays, and Greek Sing.

Although the games officially began on Saturday on the intramurals field, the vast majority of BSC's Greeks arose Saturday to aspirin-popping relays brought on by a strategically placed band party featuring New Potato Caboose on Friday night before the grouling events. The "weekend" actually began on Thursday with a blood drive and a philanthropic visit to a local school to entertain children. By Sunday most of the Greeks were just thankful it was all over. Theta Chi and Alpha Omicron Pi won the weekend overall events. All the Fraterities and Sororities that participated this year look forward to next year's weekend of exposition.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

Never before have I been so glad to be through with something. The thing which I have completed is the 1989 SOUTHERN ACCENT. I am sure that the members of my staff will agree that working on this yearbook has been one of the most difficult tasks attempted during the past school year. Working on the SOUTHERN ACCENT is very time consuming with little in the way of reward or recognition for that time. Of course, we receive monetary compensation for our time but it really doesn't make up for the things that we give up to work on the yearbook. For instance, time that could be spent studying, relaxing, or playing. Collectively the yearbook staff receives only $433 a month in salary. That salary has to be divided among five staff members. The salary, also, doesn't make up for the huge amount of stress that is felt by every member because he knows that he is responsible for a publication that will be seen by 1500 of his peers.

What makes the task of yearbook production even more difficult is the fact that the Student Government Association never seems to allocate as much money to the yearbook as is needed to produce a quality publication befitting a fine academic institution like Birmingham-Southern College. It seems that if you ask for ten dollars they will give you only seven dollars. This makes it terribly difficult to fulfill the high expectations of Birmingham-Southern students. These students have grown accustomed to having the best of everything. Unfortunately the best cost more money than the SGA is willing to expend on yearbook publication.

So with a very tight budget and a staff of four I set out to produce a book that would please the student and yet fall within my budget limitations. I cut out about 75 pages from the book to bring it under budget. I managed to keep the same amount of color pages as has been in the book in the past. I decided that a yearbook should be a picture book of a year of school activities. Keeping with this theme, I trimmed copy down to the bare essentials making more room for photographs. I, also, eliminated filler elements such as feature stories. This book is essentially a year in pictures at Birmingham-Southern. This book represents untold hours of hard work by myself and my staff. It is not the best yearbook ever produced but I can honestly say that we did our best to make it better than our resources would allow and I think we did.

Editor-in-Chief

I would like to thank all those individuals who helped to bring the 1989 SOUTHERN ACCENT to the students of Birmingham-Southern. Without their help this publication would not be possible.

Those individuals were:
Ricky Brown (Above and beyond the call of duty in every area including layout, copy, editorial assistance, and photography)
Kyle Kyser (Above and beyond the call of duty in photography)
Merritt Sankey (Above and beyond the call of duty in layout, editorial assistance, and support even though not a paid staff member)
Richard Behr (Extra photography and developing)
Jim Johnson (Extra photography from newspaper)
Bernadette Peters (Newspaper assistance)
Duvergne Duffee (Photogrpahy and Developing)
Brent Davis (Copy)
Frank Wall (Extra Photography)
Gwen Dill (Favors galore)
Terry Morgan (Yearbook company advisor and favors galore)
David Hill (School advisor)
Jan Brewer (Advice from experience)
